

"It will be mad!"

LUNICON

The Leeds Unicon

July 30th - 1st Aug 1993

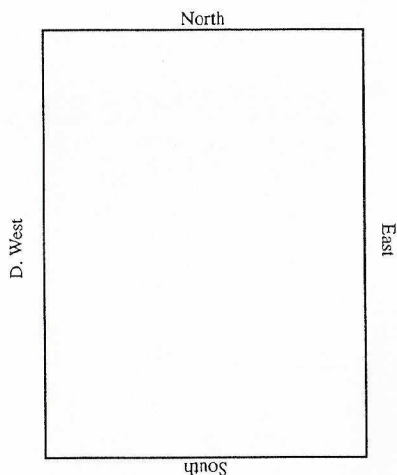

Leeds University SFSoc is pleased to bring you a Unicon bid for 1993. We feel that the Unicon has wandered from the original ideas and attracts far too few students each year, so we are offering a special student discount rate to try to attract more. Don't be put off if you are not a student, it will still be cheap and offer something for all. The theme will be based around Lewis Carroll and madness (but when has anybody ever took any notice of the theme!) The programme will include a Mad Hatter's Tea Party, chess with the white queen and croquet (weather permitting)

50% student discount!

Outside programme (weather permitting) and, of course, traditional Unicon events such as the booze up cocktail workshop and food tasting. Set in the luxurious setting of Charles Morris Hall, Lunicon is conveniently situated for fast food and the town centre.

How to get there (via Snark Hunt)

Supporting membership is only £5, attending only £10.
